ADMNISTRATION

The DePauw year.. BEGINS IN A BUSINESS-LIKE WAY...

Behind the quiet facade of the Administration building is a hum of busy activity:

Program problems, requiring miracles to be solved, smooth out with efficient aid;

Suzy learns to be good, and Freddy Frosh knows the score after visiting the dean;

And 'papa pays and pays' after his son's brief visit to the comptroller's office. Here

Governing forces behind the university make momentous decisions; carefully deter-

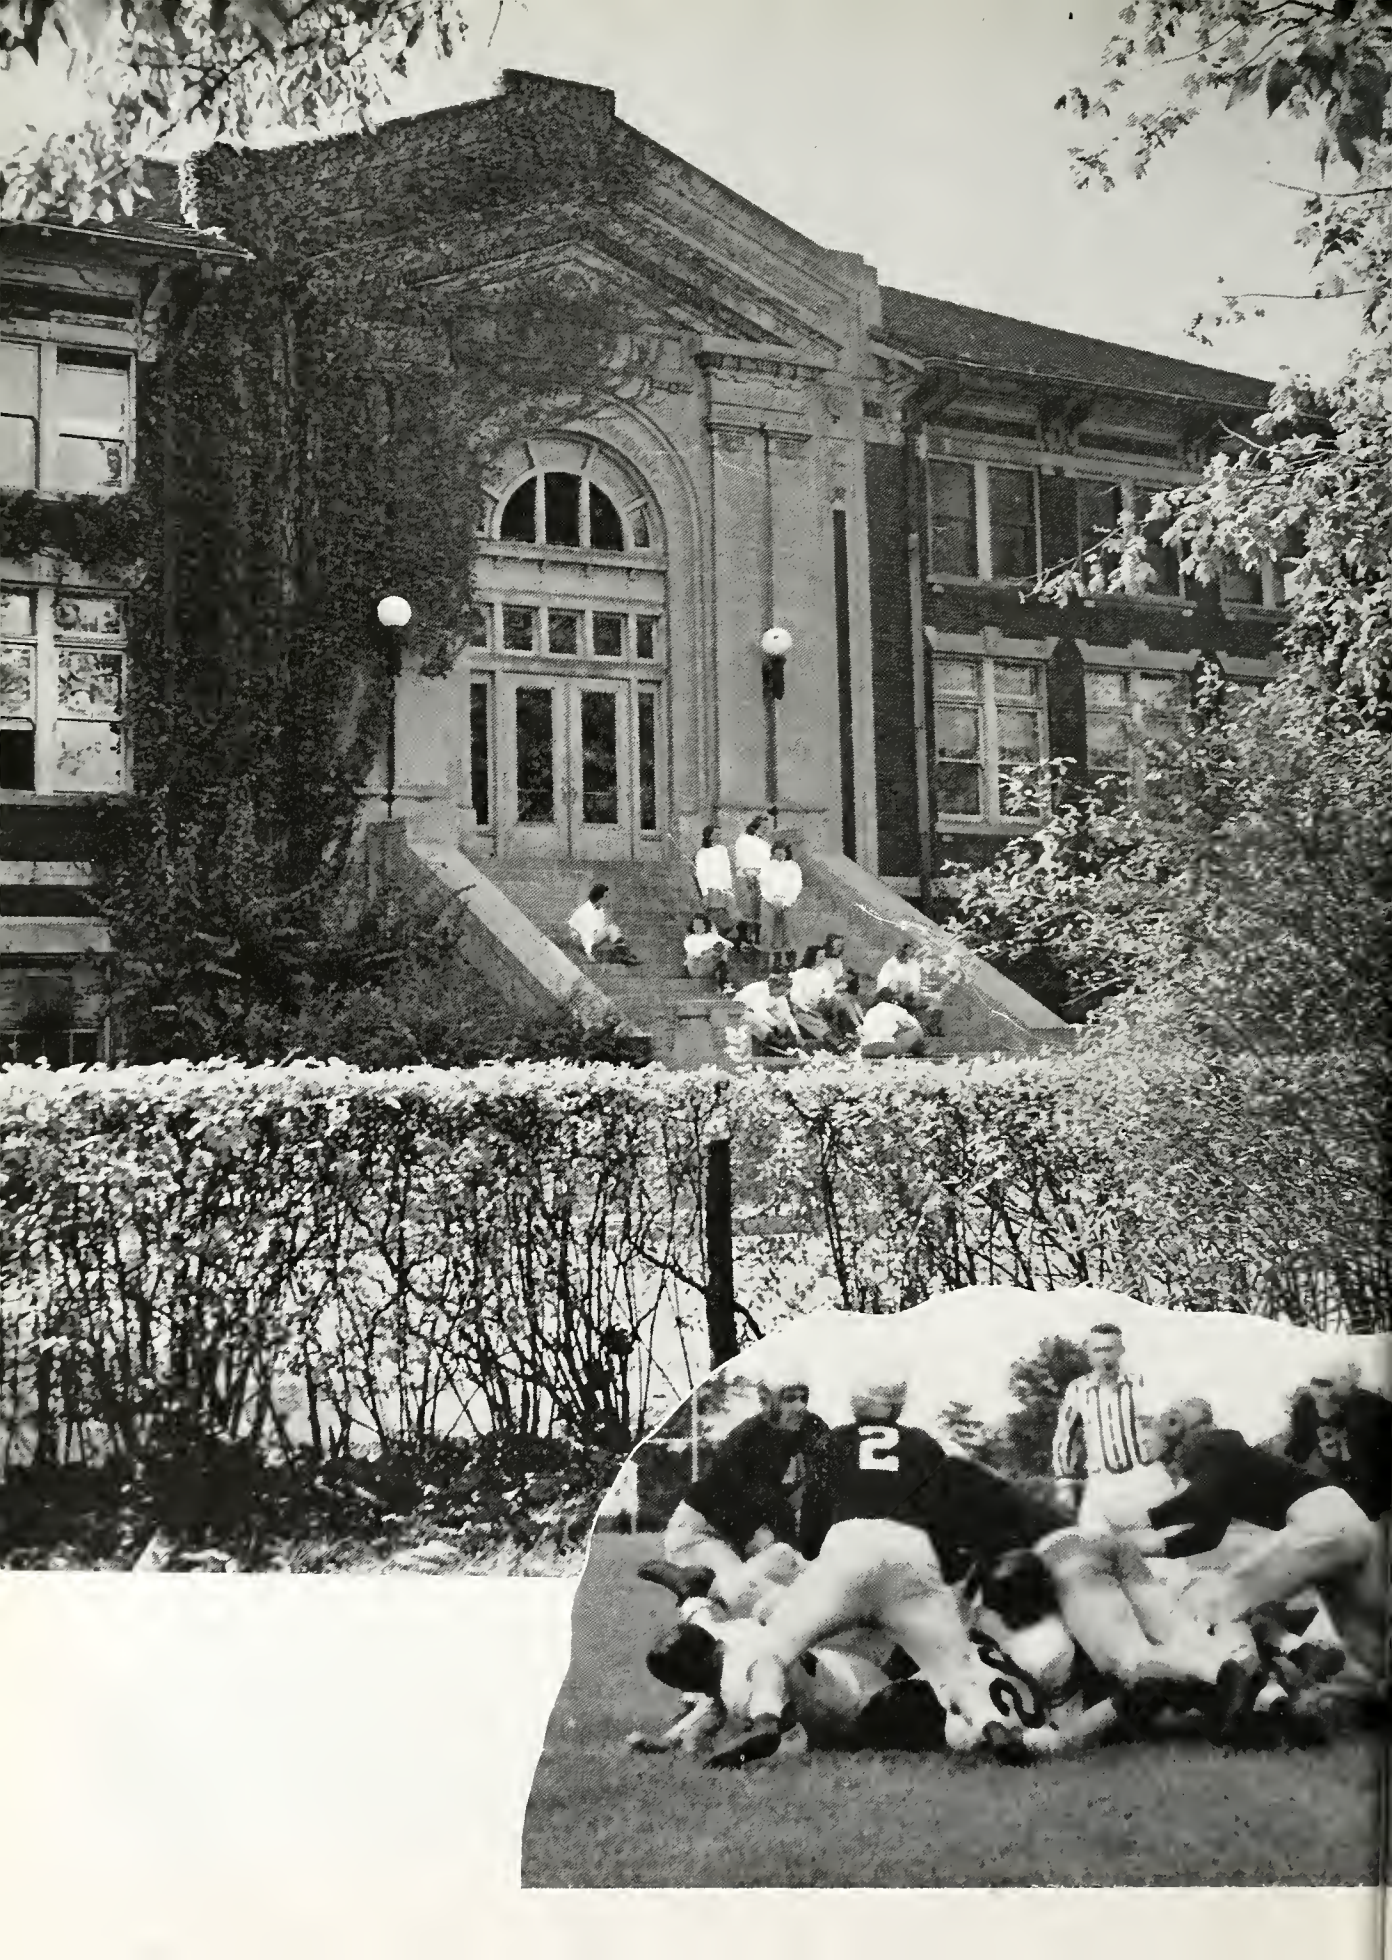
Mining the most effective way to carry out DePauw's traditionally high ideals.

the DePauw year.. AS IT TURNS TO THE GRINDSTONE...

Eight o'clock stupor; eleven-thirty starvation; one-thirty lethargy; three-thirty Apathy . . . It's all a part of that routine called classes, which become at times a Rather dull hindrance to the "carefree college days." Nonetheless, without them There wouldn't be any college. So with a vague realization that that is what we Are here for, we plunge into the ordeal of education—the mad scribbling of notes We can't read . . . term papers . . . final exams. Then it's over—for another semester.

the DePauw year.. EDUCATION GROWS MORE LIBERAL...

In a college education there is necessary an outlet for the student's talents and Ambitions which extends beyond the classroom. Through experience and cooperative Effort may his interests be realized. Whatever the interest—drama, journalism, Music, art . . . there are always means of furthering them at DePauw. Footlights and Grease paint; printer's ink and paper; symphony and chorus; palette and brush—it Is the extra-curricular activities that make complete the lectures and the books.



the DePauw year.. THE TIGERS EARN LOYAL SUPPORT...

Few aspects of campus life are more avidly followed than the many athletic events Of the year. Whether it be an intramural meet or varsity game, there will never Be any lack of enthusiasm. Pep rallies behind the stadium on the eve of a football Game; excited crowds cheering the teams on to victory; the mad riot of a home run Or a winning basket. It reflects the spirit of DePauw—the spirit of competition And cooperation that is part of that indelible something called DePauw tradition.

DRINK
Coca-Cola

the DePauw year.. A DANCE THEME PERVADES IT...

The saying "All work and no play . ." becomes a watchword of DePauwites when

Free time comes in their busy schedule. So DePauw plays, whether it means going to

A formal dance, trudging home sleepily at two a.m.; or pausing between classes for

A hand of bridge at the Barn. Social life at DePauw means hordes descending on the Show every Sunday night, jeans-clad picnicers in the spring, feverish preparation

For house dances, and a scrapbook full of happy memories found in life at DePauw.

The DePauw year.. AND FRIENDSHIP FORMS A BASIS...

Through the years at DePauw, one of the most striking memories is the friendships We have made. Friends . . . who loan you their clothes for that special date, help you pass your English comp by proof-reading your short story, share in your times of joy and sorrow . . . these are your closest friendships. We cheer ourselves hoarse when our house plays intramural tournaments—then, win or lose, find real pleasure in rivalry with friends from other houses . . . Friendship is DePauw.

CORNERSTONES

A strong, permanent basis of DePauw spirit is Found in her buildings . . . some of them covered
With many years' growth of thick green ivy . . .
Others simple and striking in their modernity.

DE PAUW UNIVERSITY LIBRARY

Administration

THE DEPAUW YEAR

THE FORCE

Since 1936 DePauw University has been guided by the very capable leadership of President Clyde E. Wildman, whose foresight and intellectual ability serve as an inspiration both to students and alumni alike. His unending interest in every aspect of DePauw life deserves the highest admiration.

The President and First Lady receive DePauw's new citizens.

BEHIND THE SPIRIT

A long-awaited vision, the almost legendary Union Building, will soon become a reality. Through the efforts of the Board of Trustees and the Alumni association, the building-fund campaign is growing to immense proportions.

A 43-member organization, the Board of Trustees is that part of the composite administration of DePauw University which backs all efforts benefiting the school. It is this organization which plans and executes all investments, handles scholarships, and confers all honorary degrees. The board, headed since 1942 by Roy Owen West, is composed of 35 elective members, plus 9 members appointed annually by the Indiana Conference of the Methodist Church.

PUBLIC RELATIONS AND PAPER

A key word to the success of DePauw University is Dr. Edward R. Bartlett, Dean of the University. His friendly manner and unsurpassed leadership has helped in making DePauw the fine institution that it is today.

The friendly man who plays from his heart might be a compact description of Dr. Van Denman Thompson, Dean of the Music school, a nationally known figure in the organ world.

This year the task of guiding the male student body at De Pauw has assumed new proportions. Dean Louis H. Dirks, aided by his background of experience and his genuine understanding has capably led DePauw's male contingent.

Miss Leota C. Calpitts, Dean of Women, constitutes a very important part of DePauw. Through her kind understanding, DePauw students—women and men alike—have overcome problems which otherwise would have been unanswered challenges.

WORK

One signs you up and the other takes your money; Miss Veneta Kunter, Registrar, and H. H. Brooks, Comptroller. Through the work of these two, neophyte DePauwites survive the ordeal of that first registration day and become full fledged students.

Responsible for putting DePauw in the news are R. E. Crouch, Secretary of Alumni Affairs, and F. L. Bergmonn, Director of Publicity. In addition, Mr. Bergmann is a member of the English Department and Mr. Crouch is actively associated with the Union Building Drive.

DePauw's trouble-shooters R. H. Farber, Secretary of Veteran's Affairs and Placement Director, aids old students with new problems; and W. E. Umbreit, Secretary of Admissions, helps new students with old problems.

GLOOMY TUESDAY!

This year over 2000 students worried through a complicoted, although efficient, registration which was somewhat of an obstacle course.

Early on registration days, several hundred students lined up eagerly in front of Bowmon Gym. Some hours later they emerged in various stages of exhaustion. What had hoppened? First, as the classes were usually filled, befuddled DePauwites had to juggle their schedules ond change courses. Next came such a battery of questionnaires that many harried students forgot even their own names. But before they could creep out of the red tape, the Comptroller took them and their money in hand.

At least one thing con be said about the merits of registration—it was an excellent way of weeding out those without the nth degree of endurance.

"Just fill this out in triplicate. . ."

The Greenhouse adjacent to Harrison Holl is a second home to Dr. W. Welch, Mr. E. Simmons, and Mr. H. R. Youse, members of our Botany Department

. . . Whether you have a question about the gold point or the Federal Reserve system, it's the Department of Economics that you wont; Dr. G. Warren, Mr. W. Yoder, and Dr. H. Jome . . .

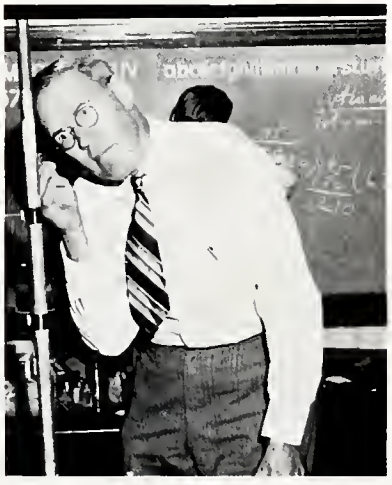
Hickman, Dr. A. Reynolds, Dr. W. Martin . . . "All Passes—art alone endures" under the capable teaching of Miss H. Leon and Mr. A. R. Winsey . . . Delving into ancient times is the accomplishment of the Department of Classical Languages under Dr. E. B. Stevens.

From the first practice kickoff to the last crack of bat meeting ball the members of the Department of Men's Physical Education hove the athletic interests of DePauw's male population at heart; Mr. C. Erdman, Mr. R. Nipper, Mr. R. Neal, and Mr. H. Hickman . . .

Poetry, prose and punctuation; commas, composition and capitals; literature, letters and language are capably dealt with by De Pauw's English Department; Dr. R. Pence, Miss M. Froley, Mrs. E. Taylor, Miss E. Mills, and Mr. J. Hixson . . .



Of all the "alogies" in education, geology presents the rockiest problems to solve. From the study of the earth's strata to world geography it is a fascinating subject; Mr. E. Smith.

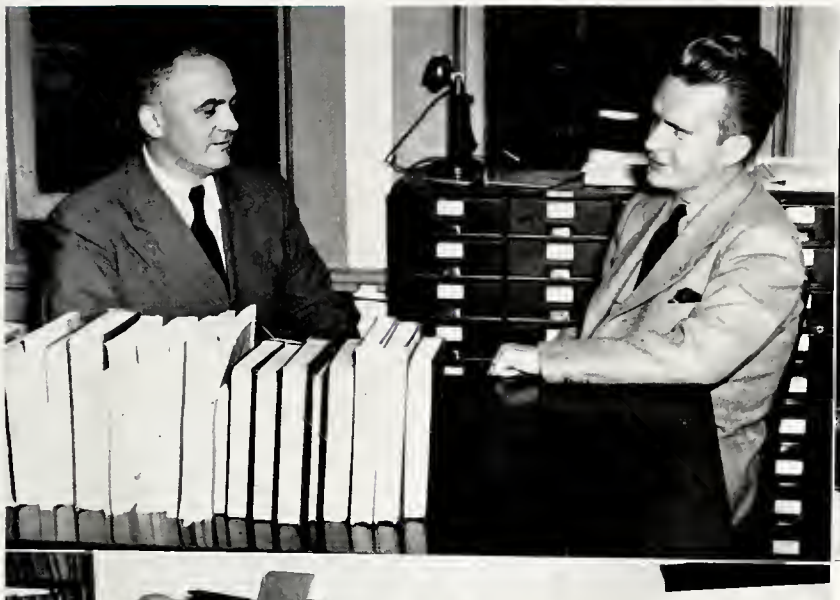
A WORD FROM THE WISE

Higher planes of thinking and the squarest solution to any problem may be found in the Department of Mathematics with Mr. J. Staten, Dr. H. Greenleaf, Mr. W. Arnold, and Dr. W. Edington

If you're a ham at heart or have speechmaking in your soul, the Speech Department is the place for you to be; where eloquence is the pass-word you'll find Miss E. Turnell, Dr. H. Ross, Mr. R. Williams, and Mr. F. Tewell holding forth.

Even though this is the atomic age and theirs is an explosive subject, you'll find that the words of Dr. D. Cook, Mrs. M. Fulmer, Dr. J. Fulmer, Mr. J. Bittles, and Dr. H. Burkett are definitely not just "blow".

IS SUFFICIENT



Teaching prospective teachers how to teach readin', 'ritin', and 'rithmetic to the youngest generation is the business of Education profs C. Green and R. J. Curtis

. . . While English Bible department members Dr. W. E. Bundy and Dr. C. Kraft discuss the situation in the Holy Land— ca. 750 B.C.

. . In order to find out what makes this crazy old world tick, it's possible to delve into the past and search the present to find some of the History lectures of Dr. G. B. Manhart, Dr. A. W. Crandall, Dr. W. W. Carson, and Dr. C. G. Pierson

Classes IN

THE DEPAUW YEAR

OUT OF

SENIOR CLASS COMMITTEE

The class of '47 finds itself a conglomeration of ex-classes '43 through '46 . . . We all remember something different . . . "What was it like before?" . . . "As it is now, somewhat. Only the people are different."

Wartime here was just a waiting . . . V5's hup-2-3-4'd to the Good Ship Asbury where they leaned from the windows and whistled . . . Monthly bat dances kept the campus alive . . . Women's houses held open tea dances on Sunday and card playing was permitted . . . V12's shocked the campus the foggy morning they changed to whites . . . Bob Randolph sang "Shoo, Shoo, Baby" and the V12's threw a terrific prom on the tennis courts . . .

Steuber beat Oberlin on Father's Day . . . Girls pasted "Back Home for Keeps" pictures on fraternity house walls . . . A masculine fan dance rocked Meharry hall . . . 7:30 classes, Saturday classes, Thanksgiving dinner between exams, New Year's eve with 12:30 hours was more of an endurance test than college . . . C'est la guerre . . . Sorority Rush problems mounted (fraternities were practically extinct) as the Navy left and hordes of women came . . . All mail, no males with only seventy-five civilians and Big Man on Campus Jackie Glover . . . Those were the days when we made an afternoon of buying one package of cigarettes . . . Now we complain about Registration.

THE WAR CAME THIS...

Ex-classes '43 through '46 came back . . . Gamma Iota was organized and serenades (?) disturbed slumbering Sorority Row nightly and 2:00 A.M.-ly . . . The waiting was over . . . Fraternities reclaimed their houses . . . Found: mermaids on the shower walls and geraniums in the windows, bridge tournaments, the Barn, relaxed smoking rules, Sam Hanna's twice as large, the Dells a village of Pre-fabs, and Quonsets in every empty space . . . Spring time hay rides and picnics in Monon Woods . . . Girls planned spring classes to leave time for sun bathing . . . Black Friars held weekly chapter meetings . . . Traditions died or survived, were made or revived.

By fall, reconversion had reconverted . . . Were conditions crowded? A bit, perhaps, at Asbury's front door . . . Seniors were still counting their cuts . . . Election campaigns consisted, as usual, of stealing posters . . . Men's Rush kept Kappa Tau busy and fraternities ran on a dime waiting for allotment checks . . . Friday night underwent phenomenal changes from 11:00 to 10:30 to 11:00 to 12:00 to 2:00. Later, later? . . .

Monon Review returned . . . Showdown and the women came to a parting of the ways . . . Half of DePauw whipped out of town on date nights . . . Monon Bell is only a year behind now . . . Best basketball season in history . . . Serenades, exchange dinners, and full social calendars are firmly reinstated . . . Class of '47 leaves DePauw regretfully as hopes for a Union Building finally begin to materialize.

CLASS OF '48—THE

Missing: Jack Isenbarger.

The Class of '48, the Juniors. Theirs is a novel position—bridging the gap between war and post-war at DePauw. This is their first real college year. For faur semesters programs were balanced with activities and studies, but now a third element—dates—have entered the picture and you can't find time for everything. So this is college—it's better this way.

BUSIEST BODY ON CAMPUS

Knit one, purl two, and argyles forever.
The brothers gather, for talk and things.
Springtime at DePauw.

You say you're trying to study?
Tense moment—small slam bid.
Smile—on study table?

HALF WAY THROUGH

Sophomores take over Senior Bench.
Chase being chased—ratio: four to one.
Eat, drink, and . . . knitting of course.

A sophomore's second home.
Potential publication powers.
Nightmare in the making.

AND EAGER FOR MORE

Too late for the war, too early for the peace—that is the class of '49.

It's lucky, they say—to have had a taste of each—DePauw at war, and now, DePauw trying to accommodate to peace. Courses are harder, but social life is the compensation. Post-war DePauw—real college life as everyone dreams—and two more years of it ahead!

CHARACTERISTIC OF '50...

FRESHMAN CLASS COMMITTEE

Left to Right: Doc Gamble, Vice-President; Marge Gardner, President; Bob Brown, Secretary-Treasurer.

Eager for education, and other things, the largest Freshman Class in DePauw's history surged onto campus in '46. Unusually active, the class arranged for two dances, a tea at Rector, and a spring picnic to help freshmen know more freshmen. Before long they assumed that intelligent DePauw look and, to a casual observer, were no longer distinguishable from the older and wiser students.

QUANTITY WITH QUALITY

Home was never like this.
Fire drill or just second childhood?
Chow line—Longden style.

After hours . . . homework?
Spring cleaning? No, just pledge duties.
Tea time, talk time.

PHI BETA KAPPA

The coveted golden key of Phi Beta Kappa has been, for the past century and a half, the highest recognition of intellectual capacities well-employed.

This original "Greek-letter" society was founded on the campus of the college of William and Mary in Williamsburg, Virginia on December 5, 1776, and had the now traditional characteristics of all such organizations.

The Indiana Alpha Chapter of Phi Beta Kappa, founded at DePauw University on December 17, 1889, elects its members in the second semester of their senior year on a basis of scholarship and character. The election is climaxed by DePauw's traditional "Phi Bete" Chapel held in March at which the new members are announced.

FOLLOWING THEIR FOOTSTEPS

Phi Eta Sigma, freshman scholastic honorary, awards laurels to freshman men who have achieved a half-A, half-B average. One of its traditional functions is to guide high school seniors at the President's Scholarship examination.

Recognizing those freshmen women who have attained a scholastic average of 2.5, Alpha Lambda Delta, national scholastic honorary, holds formal pledging in November and May. Traditionally the members serve as hostesses for President's Scholarship week-end.

MORTAR BOARD

"Heaven is not reached at a single bound: but we build the ladder from which we rise from the lowly earth to the vaulted skies, and we mount to the summit round by round." This might well be the code which those who proudly wear the pin of Mortar Board have followed. To those who are capped at the highlight of May Doy, the realization of this honor has come through hard work in both curricular and extra-curricular phases. Also, the faculty and seniors have chosen these girls on the basis of fine leadership and character. This distinction comes as the highest attainment of a junior woman.

AND PERSONALITY

Top Row: Charles Raberts, Treasurer; Jack Taylor, President; Red Miller, Bill Dailey, Secretary; Chuck Gilbert, Fiske Field, Pete Barber, Vice-President.

GOLD KEY

There is probably no honorary fraternity demanding higher qualifications of its members than Gold Key, which was introduced at DePauw University in 1939 as an outgrowth of the national Blue Key.

The junior men who receive their symbolic canes at Recognition Chapel each year are those who have proved themselves worthy on the basis of character, high scholarship, and campus leadership. While the number of men to be elected is unlimited, fewer than twelve usually receive this honor each year.

Gold Key as a body appears publicly every fall when its members attend the Old Gold Day football game en masse.

FROM CIVIL WAR TO

DePauw is proud of its democratically run elections as each fall new student officers are elected. Members from each sorority and fraternity draw up two slates of officers. Campaign rallies, snake dances, speeches, and parades make for real school spirit. Then comes the big day—ELECTION DAY! Each student votes by secret ballot for the candidate he wishes. The outcome—whether University or Union—is sure to be a success because all DePauw will be behind the newly elected officers.

Filer and Field—or the one time an "F" is passing.
Ballot, ballot, who's got the ballot?

DePauw-cracy in actian.
A Field day by tarch light.

UNION FOR DEPAUW

The Student Governing Board consists of five seniors, five juniors, three sophomores and three freshmen, elected by the student body. This Board meets once each month to discuss student problems, and each class committee takes charge of its class dance.

Authority over all student clubs, honorary fraternities and associations is exercised by the Student-Faculty Council. Faculty representatives include the personnel deans and one representative from each of the University divisions. Student representatives are chosen by the Student Governing Board.

BEHIND THE LINES

A feud of long standing still exists between the two men's national honoraries, Alpha Delto Sigma and Sigmo Delto Chi. Alpha Delta Sigma, national advertizing honorary, is composed of members of the business stoffs of the publications. The Alpha chapter of Sigma Delta Chi, men's national journalistic honorary, selects is members from those who have actively participated in a position of responsibility on the editorial staffs of three campus publications. Publishing the Founder's Day paper and sponsoring Showdown are two of the annual octivities of this honorory.

Holding the strings to the purse is but one of the functions of the Publications Board, composed of faculty and student representotives, who are also charged with the administrative control of the publicotions.

Among the three national journalistic honoraries on campus is the Sigma chapter of Theta Sigma Phi, women's honorary, choosing its members from those junior and senior women actively engaged on editorial or business staffs. Besides publishing The DePauw on Dad's Day and May Day, the Theta Sigs stage an annual Matrix Table banquet.

A REALITY

This year more than ever The Mirage editors and their host of workers have tried to give to the students a vivid picture of campus life. Since a yearbook is the most permanent impression of college life a student can possess, the staff has sought to include between these covers all the characteristic phases—classes, activities, sports, social life, and a variety of sidelights happening in Greencastle from September to June. Many long but fascinating hours have been spent pasting photographs, writing heads, selling subscriptions—all in order to meet the deadline and to bring to the student a vivid portrayal of his life and times at DePauw.

Mimi Roberts, Editor, second semester; Red Miller, Editor first semester; Barbara Boydston, Business Manager.

"The only policy of The DePauw this year is to publish news of interest to the whole campus while it is still news." With these words the editor of this year's DePauw explains the popularity of this publicotion among the students and faculty. The DePauw's chief function, however, is to give experience to the students interested in journalism. In working for the paper amateur journalists soon learn that each staff is dependent on the others, ond that only by each person doing his own job, whether he be a reporter, an ad-writer, a proof-reader, business manager, or editor-in-chief, can the paper be published on time.

BOULDER 'N BOLDER

Not four, not five, but six copies a year! Yes, it's something new The Boulder staff was proud to present. That old worry "when's The Boulder coming out" was greatly subdued, because everyone was so enthused in having an issue appear every month and a half. The art side of The Boulder was emphasized, with cartoons taking the lead. The literary section was up to its usual high standards, and then the inevitable, dearly-loved humorous side of The Boulder was as popular as ever. Everyone agreed that six times a year was none too often for The Boulder to appear.

MAKE MINE MUSIC

A very important aspect on the more aesthetic side of DePauw's life is that of music—in every medium from solo to full symphony.

STRING SERENADE IN

Whether you enjoy Beethoven, Bach, Grofe, or Kern, the DePauw University Orchestra played them all in its many and versatile programs this year. Under the capable direction of Professor Herman Berg, the sixty-five members not only presented many fine concerts for the student body, but also broadcast their music to radio audiences and traveled to northern Indiana displaying their showmanship to receptive high school students.

Highlighting this year's activity of the concert band was a three-day spring concert tour through southern Indiana cities. On campus, both indoor and outdoor concerts were presented by the band, and at the March 27 concert, Robert Sanders of the Indiana University Music School acted as guest conductor and directed his "Symphony for Band." Among other activities, the band harmonized on the ether waves with a broadcast over WIRE December 7.

An integral part of the football games, the marching band and snappy twirlers provided top-notch music and maneuvering, even invading Wabash to demonstrate their skill. Bigger than ever before, the band boasted nearly eighty members.

The DePauw chapter of American Guild of Organists is one of the two collegiate chapters in the country. Membership is open only to organ majors of outstanding ability who have been recommended by Dr. Thompson and other instructors in the school.

"And the heavens resounded"—as did the DePauw University choir, faithfully, at every worship chapel. Under the fine leadership of Mr. George W. Gove, the choir presented many inspiring concerts. In March, in conjunction with the DePauw-Greencastle Choral Union and the memorable St. Matthew Passion was presented.

MELODY MAKERS

Through Mu Phi Epsilon, national musical honorary, an attempt is made to create a feeling of unity and friendship among DePauw's women who have a common interest in music, and to help them develop their musical ability. Members are selected from outstanding junior and senior women of Music School who rank in the upper two-thirds of their class and who have proven their skill in the music field. Participation in chapel programs, recitals, and an annual broadcast gives these women a chance to display their talent.

Phi Mu Alpha, the masculine counterpart of Mu Phi Epsilon, chooses its members from students enrolled in the Schools of Music and Liberal Arts. Selection is based on scholarship and participation in campus musical projects. This group meets on the first Monday of each month to hear lectures by the faculty of Music School and to discuss current topics concerning music study and appreciation. Thus Phi Mu Alpha unites men who have a mutual interest in the field of music.

DRAMA AND DEBATE SPEAK

DePauw's Speech Department, under the direction of Dr. Herold T. Ross and Mr. Robert Williams, is a very popular part of DePauw life. Here in Speech Hall promising debaters discuss prominent issues of campus, nation, and world. Budding young Cornells and Barrymores work night and day rehearsing lines, plotting action, and taking care of the numerous back-stage details. All these long hours of practice are rewarded with the excitement of opening night with its tenseness and sigh of relief as the final applause bursts forth. Ask any student enrolled in the Speech Department his opinion of its value and he'll quickly add that it's worth a million.

First nighters—just before the curtain.

THE ELITE THAT

Duzer Du, campus dramatic club, is made up of those students selected each year for their dramatic ability. Then, under the guidance of student and faculty directors, the neophites are polished for the Little Theatre productions.

Five students and five faculty members comprise the Little Theatre Board, whose primary function is to select plays to be presented throughout the year.

LITTLE THEATRE PRESENTS

After the Little Theatre season began with a hilarious bang on a "Torchbearing" note, it settled down to equally funny but quieter humor with the production of J. M. Barrie's Admirable Chrichton.

The story of the play is that of a remarkable butler and a stuffy English family, all of whom go through the rather extraordinary experience of being marooned on a desert island. During the sojourn, social customs are temporarily abandoned and the butler becomes the head of the family. At the end of the play, a rescue takes place, restoring the same social barriers which existed between servant and masters before the island exile.

The "Tiger-cat" becomes Lord Loam.

The servants come to tea—part of their room and bored pay.

Love on an Island prospers even when duds aren't so fancy.

FROM FARCE TO MURDER

The Little Theatre went from farce to murder this year—namely, The Torchbearers by George Kelly, presented on Old Gold Day, to Agatha Christie's Ten Little Indians, which "hit the boards" on March 20.

The former, a hilarious farce was a take-off on the ultra-arty amateurs, the "theatah" enthusiastic women—and men—who present heavy "drahma" without the ability to handle even light "draama". It dealt sympathetically with the problem of a poor husband who had to stand by silently while his young but fly-brained wife got her acting ambitions out of her system.

The mood changed with the eerie atmosphere of a lonely island during the next play. Bodies all over the place is about the best way to describe Ten Little Indians. It was the kind of tense situation that an audience enjoys—if nerves hold out until the last curtain.

News—another "little Indian" bit the dust, via an axe!

The strain of acting is too great—bring some water!

DEPAUW ON THE AIR

"FROM THE CAMPUS AT GREENCASTLE"

Broadcasting over station WIRE, the student Radio Guild presents a varying program divided into music, drama, and special events series. The weekly productions are entirely student managed, from the formation of ideas to the actual radio presentation, by an organization consisting of script, publicity, technical, production, and music staffs.

Students participating are selected through tryouts, solely on the basis of ability. Members obtain practically professional experience, since the studios at the top of Harrison Hall are exceptionally well-equipped for the student group.

Just completing its first anniversary on campus, Epsilon Pi Alpha selects for distinction members of the Radio Guild who have achieved a requisite amount of work in radio. Although at present a local organization, this honorary fraternity harbors plans for expansion.

Before this year the Radio Workshop was an adjunct of classes but under the sponsorship of Miss Elizabeth Turnell it became extra-curricular, members meeting weekly for the purpose of gaining practice in the production of various forms of radio work.

BELIEVERS AND DOERS

The work of the Methodist Student Movement at DePauw is denominational but not sectarian, and gives students an opportunity to express their churchmanship in student activities both in the church and on the campus. While MSM seeks to include the whole student body, more specialized groups in the curricular field of religion provide added experience for pre-theos.

The Oxford Fellowship is an international organization for young men entering some branch of Christian Service. The Religious Education Club provides an opportunity for additional study in the field of Religious Education. The Council on Religious Life, which sponsors Religious Emphasis week, coordinates the program of student religious organizations.

Among the important women's organizations on the DePauw campus is the Young Women's Christian Association. Besides having general meetings of interest to the whole group, YW is divided into committees that meet weekly to carry on various activities: Current Affairs committee keeps its members informed of present day issues, the Money Makers body handles organizational finances, the Social Service group co-operates with the relief organizations to aid the underprivileged of Greencastle, while the Footlight club provides programs for various occasions. Annually, YW sponsors the Street Fair, May Day breakfast and new vocational guidance conference which brings to the campus many well-known business and professional people.

A WORTHWHILE AIM

Delta Phi Eta, honorary scouting fraternity, is composed of girls who have been Girl Scouts and are interested in continuing their work. During the war, the girls of Delta Phi Eta spent most of their time on national defense work; but this year, since the emergency is over, they have concentrated their efforts on serving the campus and community. Among their activities were helping the Greencastle Girl Scout troops and working at Putnam County Hospital.

Alpha Phi Omega, national scouting honorary, continues in college the ideals and purposes of the scouting movement. Its members serve by sponsoring various service projects on the campus and aiding in scout activities in Greencastle. One of the main contributions to the community this year was sponsoring the Putnam County Community Chest drive. APO also sponsored the annual bridge tournament. The honorary was founded at Lafayette College in 1925 and has ninety-one active chapters.

CURRICULAR KNOWLEDGE

Named for the noted British social worker, Albert Toynbee, the DePauw Sociology Club is now in its thirty-eighth year. Membership in Toynbee enables sociology majors to discuss phases of their subject not covered in class.

Another "old-timer" on the campus is the creative writing honorary, Tusitala, organized in 1908. Students who wish to became members of Tusitala submit samples of their writing for competitive judgment.

Pi Sigma Alpha, an honorary for political science students, has returned to campus this year for the first time since the war.

The Philosophy Club offers an opportunity for students taking philosophy at or above the sophomore level to discuss pertinent questions in an informal, spontaneous fashion.

FROM SUBLIME TO RIDICULOUS

DePauwites with interests musical or literary may very likely be found in the Shakespeare Club or singing with the Symphonettes. The former group meets bi-weekly to dramatize and discuss the plays of the Bard of Avon. The Symphonettes became an organization last year with the Mason Hall serenade group, and have continued to meet, presenting a radio program and caroling this Christmas. Symphonette members are all sophomores, while the Shakespeare club membership is not limited to any specific class.

Two other organizations for people who are interested are Rho Rho Rho and Black Friars. However, the specific interests of these groups are highly secret, and only occasionally does a mysterious word about them leak out. They both engage in many activities—nobody knows what—but they do engage in activities, of that there is assurance from high sources. Rho Rho Rho has a thirty-five year old mascot, a cat named Rat-Eater, and the Black Friars' mascot is an elephant.

ACTIVITY ADDICTS

Gamma Iota, organized to promote the welfare of former members of the Armed Forces, acts as a connecting link between the Office of Veterans Affairs and ex-servicemen at DePauw. The organization solves veteran problems and seeks to furnish the ex-gi's with needed information.

Ten senior girls each year are chosen to don the white caps bearing the Greek letters GBT. These seniors, two from eoch of five sororities, form a group whose purpose is fun and friendship. The party girls meet once a week and through this association form lasting friendships.

As did many campus organizations, Freshman Interfraternity Council hibernated during the war. Re-activated now, it sponsored the freshman dance in October and arranged pledge class smokers. "Little Kappa Tau Kappa" is composed of one freshman from each fraternity and MHA, and works under KTK.

The AWS Board, which makes campus regulations, is in chorge of the big sister program, the annual Golddiggers' Ball, and the Barn. Through AWS Council, made up of a representative from each house, every DePauw woman has a voice in the Board's actions.

"ART ALONE ENDURES"

A traditional friendly rivalry ended this year when two of the oldest departmental clubs on campus, Sodalitas Latina and Epsilon Epsilon, merged to form the DePauw Classical Club. The purpose of the new organization is to promote interest in the fields of classic languages, art, and culture. Dr. and Mrs. E. B. Stevens sponsor the group.

The DePauw German Club is dedicated to the study of German literature, political life, and social and cultural customs. The organization, which is a member of the American Federation of German Clubs, is sponsored by Dr. Baerg.

The foremost aim of Alpha Iota chapter of Kappa Pi, national honorary art fraternity, is the promotion of art in the broadest sense of the term on the DePauw campus. The technique of taking good photographs, developing, printing and enlarging were all included in this year's Camera Club activities. Mr. Winsey is sponsor of these two newly established organizations.

ATION...REACTION FAVORABLE

The guiding and governing power of the Women's Recreation Association here at DePauw is centered in the WRA Board. The seventeen members of this group are responsible for the smooth running of all the women's athletic activities from September to June. Speedball, basketball, volleyball and baseball march by in a continuous line from spring to fall, supplemented by the various minor sports.

Several times during the year, WRA has enlisted the aid of the "D" Association to present Sports Nights, open to the whole campus.

Early in December, Alice Marble, world's women tennis champion was brought to campus by WRA. A tea given for her entertainment turned into an affair where she entertained us with stories of her personal experiences. Her evening lecture will be remembered for the soundness of her advice and the sparkle of her personality.

Three honorary organizations, Naiad, Orchesis and Speed Swimming, are under the sponsorship of WRA. Naiad and Speed Swimming represent the two forms of water activity—ballet and speed respectively. Naiad's annual acquacade highlights the Mother's Day program and Speed Swimming aims toward the National Telegraphic Swimming Meet every year. Orchesis typifies another kind of athletic activity—modern dance. Each spring, Orchesis presents a chapel program of original and interpretive dances.

Though WRA is associated with DePauw women, it is also o national organization and as such is an integral part of the national sports program for all American women.

Athletics

THE DEPAUW YEAR

TIGER SPORTS PARADE

Varsity athletics took the limelight again this year as a new crop of eligibles turned out for every sport. Baseball and track were a fifty-fifty proposition with most of the men on both squads participating for the first time in collegiate circles.

Although the Tiger eleven found it rough sledding in winning only one and tieing one on the gridiron, the experience which the squad gained will help season them for next year.

Basketball again proved itself the favorite of the campus, and Bowman Gym was filled to capacity at every home game. The hardwood five scored seven straight wins to claim a spot as one of the ten undefeated teams in the nation before losing 65-61 to Butler.

In the pool, our swimmers hit their stride early and drew capacity crowds for every meet.

Bowman Gym is the most frequented building on campus as DePauw students hit the road toward a new high in the sports.

BRAINS BEHIND THE BRAWN

Raymond R. Neal, assumed the role of Athletic Director for 1946-47 and formulated the first complete coaching staff since the departure of the Navy V-12 unit. Harold Hickman switched from head baseball coach to become the mentor of the basketball squad and was replaced by Charlie Erdman who will groom the Tiger baseball and swimming teams. Another newcomer, Bob Nipper, came to DePauw from Shortridge High School in Indianapolis and took over the duties of head football coach.

"D" MEN...OLD GOLD STARS

The "D" Men's Association, an organization composed of all men who have earned varsity letters in one of the major sports, became active this fall with the return of many pre-war and wartime athletes. The membership is well over one hundred lettermen. This is the largest group of lettermen ever to participate in the "D" Men's Association.

The first post war activities of the "D" Men's Association was to revive the old DePauw spirit by holding pep sessions before every varsity football game. The "D" Association also plans to handle the concession stands next year. Art Zwierlein, a letter winner in both football and track, was elected president of the organization.

GOOOOO...DEPAUW!

Sparking the DePauw teams to their fighting best, the cheerleaders directed and united spectotar participatian at each game af the seasan. Ta increase the efficiency and effect af their efforts this year, a special "Baaster Section" was organized to wark with the cheerleaders as the heart af their cheering section. In addition, pep rallies, chapels, and team send-affs supplement the list af the cheerleaders' contributian ta the spirit and activities af DePauw.

MEN BEHIND THE ACTION

Perhaps the most unheralded job in DePauw sports is that of the managers and trainers. Endless chores crop up from the first day of practice until long after all the players have handed in their uniforms at the close of the season. In normal times there are a host of experienced men on hand to cope with this situation, but this year the heavy duties fell to a few veteran managers and the freshmen assistants. The group functioned smoothly throughout the year and regardless of the seriousness of a player's ailment one of the trainers was always on hand.

THRILLS

AND SPILLS ON THE GRIDIRON

After trailing Lawrence 13-0 in the first half the Tiger gridders poured on the heat to gain a 19-19 tie in the opening game at Blackstock Stadium. Below, the Old Gold is on one of its three touchdown marches which Lawrence was unable to halt.

COURAGE IN DEFEAT OR VICTORY

With the elevation of "Goummy" Neal to athletic director, DePauw began a new football era under Robert H. Nipper whose Indianapolis Shortridge High School teams have been tops during the past nine years. Though the season was unsuccessful from the won-lost standpoint Coach Nipper experimented with several types of offensive systems and built a squad of sixty men of which all but eight may return next year. Forty-five war veterans, eighteen of whom were returning lettermen, put together a record of one win, two ties, and five losses. Don "Buck" Galbraith did most of the quarterbacking' his passing was instrumental in setting up many of the Tiger touchdowns. Jim Highland did the place-kicking. Bob Babcock was another important member of the backfield by virtue of his unique running style. Jack Isenbarger's fine play at center and defensive line-backing was superb in every game.

"Comeback" was the byword in the opener against Lawrence at Blackstock. Trailing 13-0 late in the second quarter, the Tigers earned a 19-19 deadlock. Babcock's running and Galbraith's passing were the key to the scoring although Bromer's line bucks represented two DePauw touchdowns. Galbraith's pass to Bostick was the other tally. McLeod, Phillips, and Wright were injured before the Illinois Normal contest which ended in an 18-0 defeat for the Tigers. Although the Tiger offense bogged down before a stronger line, Ogden's defensive play was outstanding. Lack of reserve strength due to a small travelling squad was one of the factors in the defeat.

Many eastern alumni turned out to support an underdog DePauw eleven against the University of Rochester. Isenbarger blocked a Rochester punt to set up the only Tiger score. A heavy rain lasted throughout the 32-6 defeat. Five thousand visitors filled Blackstock Stadium including many on hand for the Dad's Day festivities, to watch a powerful Butler team outclass the Tigers, 41-6. Numerous DePauw fumbles set up many scoring opportunities for the Bulldogs. Ohio Wesleyan presented one of the strongest teams in their history when the Tigers journeyed to Delaware to absorb a 46-7 lashing. Injuries continued to plague Nipper's men and the services of Babcock were especially missed in this game. Piquette's pass to Ogden tallied DePauw's only score.

A revamped Tiger squad came from behind to beat Earlham 13-6 in the 29th edition of the rivalry. The muddy condition of Blackstock field didn't stop DePauw from putting across two touchdowns in the fourth quarter after a blocked punt had set up Earlham's lone score. Galbraith scored the only tally in the closing seconds. Highland's place kick had already given the margin of victory. "Spirit" was the byword of Old Gold Day. A student "Booster Club" organized better cheers and team support hit a new high. Team spirit ran high too as indicated by two valiant goal line stands which held a strong Oberlin team to one lone tally. DePauw's scoring in the 7-7 tie came in the fourth quarter on a 43 yard drive after a penalty had nullified an earlier touchdown.

TOUCHDOWN BOUND

In spite of cold and raining weather a large student section journeyed to Crawfordsville to see the 54th renewal of the DePauw-Wabash rivalry. Wabash's 26-0 victory gave them possession of the coveted Monon Bell until next year. Along with many fumbles and pass interceptions there was much spirit and many penalties in the battle which was the final game for the senior members of the team. The graduating men are Babcock, Eyrich, Filer, Galbraith, Heiber, Highland, Jenkins and Montgomery.

Varsity letters were awarded to fourteen men including: Robert Babcock, John Filer, Don Galbraith, James Highland, Eldon Wright, Clinton Bostick, Richard Coffey, Jack Isenbarger, James Little, Bill Bromer, Robert Ogden, Edward Gruener, Alfred Piquette, and Halsted Walker. Minor awards went to Montgomery, Becker, Claycomb, McLeod, Vear, Morrison, and Rippetoe. Fifteen freshmen received their numerals.

IT'S INDIANA MADNESS

Possessing a wealth of fine basketball players, Coach Harold Hickman, who replaced Donavan Moffett this season as Tiger net coach, turned out one of the best basketball teams in Indiana and one of the finest quintets to come out of DePauw in several years. Playing a hard driving, fast breaking game, the Tiger five racked up seven straight wins before dropping a close tilt to Butler before 10,000 wildly enthusiastic fans at Butler fieldhouse.

DEPAUW CAGERS CAPTURE ICC CROWN

With the annexing of the 1946-47 ICC crown and an invitation to the National Invitational Basketball Championship Tournament at Kansas City, the DePauw basketball team climaxed its most successful season in a number of years. This hard driving, fast breaking squad, coached by Harold Hickman, managed to win fifteen games while dropping only two. In the N.I.B.C. Tournament, however, the Tigers trounced Ogelthorpe, 82-30, but dropped their second round tilt to Mankato State Teachers College, 65-54.

After losing the Butler game at Indianapolis, the Tigers bounced back to trounce Wabash, 61-50. This was DePauw's eighth victory against only one defeat. The Tiger quintet racked up four more consecutive victories, before losing to a deadly accurate Marshall College team, 73-58.

Coming back from defeat at the hands of Marshall, the red hot DePauw netters swept into the top spot in the Indiana Collegiate Conference as they polished off the highly rated Butler five, 40-39, in Bowman Gym. Tom Beck, a freshman, paced the Tigers, pouring twenty-one points through the nets. Travelling to Richmond for its next contest, DePauw swamped the Earlham Quakers, 81-51. The Tigers cinched the ICC crown, defeating the Wabash Cavemen, 62-49, at Wabash in the final game of the regular season. Earl "Red" Gardner lead the Tiger scoring for the year. Gardner racked up a total of 192 points, and Bill Walton was second with 174 points for the 1946-47 season.

Capturing firsts in all events but one the Bengal nators easily outscored Indiana State, Ball State, Evansville, and Earlham with 62 points. Under the able coaching of Charlie Erdman the DePauw tankmen won four meets while dropping five. The excellent diving of Bill Westerhold and fast swimming of Lyon, Metcalf and Amstutz all accounted for many of DePauw's points in the 1946-47 swimming season.

BREAKS EVEN IN WON AND LOST COLUMN

The 1946 baseball season opened on the home field against Central Normal with Jack Bundy on the mound for the Tigers. In a free scoring contest marred by 13 errors by the two squads the Tigers lost, 18-13. The following week the Tigers journeyed to Ft. Benjamin Harrison to meet a strong aggregation, losing 7-3. Bundy started on the hill, but was relieved by Bill Albaugh in the eighth frame. Albaugh came back the next week against Ball State, but the Bengals again caught the short end of a 21-5 decision. This was the third straight loss for the DePauw nine.

TIGER NINE SPENDS MOST OF SEASON

Coach Hal Hickman again picked Bundy, a Richmond High School product, to start against Earlham. His choice payed off as Bundy pitched two hit ball to topple Earlham, 11-5, for the first Bengal victory of the year. Bill Albaugh notched DePauw's second win, pitching and batting the Tigers to a 7-3 victory over the Wabash Cavemen. The following week Albaugh shut out Central Normal, 8-0, allowing only one hit in an abbreviated contest. After winning three straight, the Tigers traveled to Purdue to take a 10-2 setback.

DODGING SHOWERS...FIVE GAMES CANCELLED

All hopes for a repeat on the conference championship faded as Butler dropped the Bengals 7-2 at Butler. It was Albaugh's first loss of the season. The DePauw bats pounded out nine hits against Earlham in the next tilt to assist Bundy in his second win over his home town team. Although Bundy pitched four hit ball for the Tigers, wet ground and continual rainfall hampered the tiger effort and resulted in four errors. The final score was DePauw 7, Earlham 5. In the return engagement with Ball State on the home field, DePauw battled its way to a 4-3 win behind Albaugh. DePauw played errorless ball despite light rain during the game. Having several games cancelled because of bad weather, DePauw finished the season winning five and losing five.

Earlham was DePauw's first victim in the 1946 season.

HAMPERED BY BAD WEATHER

Bob Ogden hits the tape.

Weather played a leading role in DePauw's 1946 track season as most of the meets were held on wet grounds, both here and away. Practice began early in March with few veterans available to add experience to the new squad. In the only indoor activity, the Purdue Relays, out sprint medley team, consisting of Bob Brown, Chuck Huntington, Bob Ogden, and Chuck West took a close third.

The outdoor season opener at Blackstock Field against Ball State ended in a 73-58 victory for the visitors. This 15 point margin represents the largest defeat of the closely contested season.

TIGER TRACKMEN WIN ONE MEET

The week following, Coach Perry's boys went to Earlham for the closest contest of the season. Led by Bob Ogden, they took eight first places but didn't quite have the manpower to fill in enough seconds and thirds. Earlham captured the meet 68½ to 62½. The Butler meet on May 7 was just another rainy day as the squad dropped a close decision 70 to 61. In the first triple meet of the season a strong Louisville team won by seven points. The final score was: Louisville 68, DePauw 61, Wabash 34.

With the first good weather of the season, DePauw's men swamped Rose Tech, 86½ to 46½. McLeod, West, May, Gubbins, and Parry each scored in their respective events. On May 18, the little state meet was held at Ball State. Wet weather was again a factor as Butler headed the field in chalking up 52½ points. Indiana State's margin of second place victory was 1/15th of a point over DePauw's third place 27 10/15.

TENNIS TEAM

Following a four year holiday from inter-collegiate competition DePauw's tennis activities resumed last spring under the direction of Coach Donovan Moffett. Vic Zink and Norm Knights, veterans of the 1942 State Championship team, returned to form the nucleus of the new squad. Dick Hamilton, H. Closz, and Jim Mathews completed the team roster.

In a short season marked by many postponements due to weather conditions Coach Moffett's boys assembled a total record of four wins out of seven meets. The second contest against Ball State was the most unique of the season, marked by several overtime matches. All of the defeats were at the hands of high calibre out-of-state teams.

Although they defeated both Ball State and Earlham twice in regular season meets, the final state meet left DePauw in fourth place. Indiana State and Ball State tied for first and Earlham, on whose court the meet was played, took third place.

DEPAUW MEN PARTICIPATE IN SPORTS

Opening the fall season with a golf tournament, DePauw intramural sports returned to its pre-war status. The Betas copped the tournament with a team score of 339. Following the golf tournament the Phi Psi's captured the speedball championship, dropping the Betas 19-17 and 22-20. Although bad weather delayed the finals of the tennis tournament, the Betas eventually took the crown as they defeated the ATO team. This was the second championship for the Betas in the three fall sports. Winding up the intramural season last spring, the ATO nine walked off with the softball title.

THROUGH INTRAMURAL ATHLETIC PROGRAM

The Phi Psi's opened the indoor intramural season by capturing the table tennis title, knocking off the Delts in the finals of the tournament. After the Delts won in a three way tie in the American League, the Lambda Chi's of the National League were successful in defeating Delta Tau Delta, 36-30, to capture the swimming crown. The Betas racked up their third title of the year as they edged out the Dekes in the bowling playoff. The Independents, boasting a well rounded quintet, hung up the basketball championship, trouncing the Phi Psi's, 48-28 and 26-24 in the playoff games.

As well as tennis.

Following a plan slightly different from that set by the fellows in their intramural program, W.R.A. carried out tournaments for each of the major and minor sports throughout the year. All girls' houses competed, entering usually an "A" and a "B" team. Non-participating house members cheered the teams on and some of the final games drew capacity crowds.

Enthusiasm is the keynote of W.R.A. activity and has caused the organization to hold the interest of the entire campus.

"SHE WALKS IN BEAUTY"

A breathless hush . . . an air of tense excitement . . . the final selection about to be announced . . . Elaine Aiken, mistress of ceremonies steps to the center of the stage . . . And once again the five most beautiful women on the DePauw campus have been chosen as Mirage beauty queens for the year!

From over a hundred contestants, the job of choosing five of the most beautiful is not an easy task. Under the appreciative and critical eyes of Dr. Kenneth Wagoner of the Psychology Department and Miss Bonnie Jean Clark of the Home Economics Department the number was reduced to fifty-two candidates. And for the final elimination the judging was given over to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Kirk of Indianapolis, who selected to represent DePauw's feminine beauty Penny Reemer and Sally Brower, freshmen of Kappa Kappa Gamma, Arline Kraft, sophomore Alpha Chi, Janice Hatz, a Theta junior, and Fran Swenson, also a junior and an Alpha Phi.

The Mirage was fortunate in having Mr. and Mrs. Kirk as judges for the contest. Mrs. Kirk was formerly assistant publicity director of the Conde Nast publications of New York City, publishers of Vogue and House and Garden magazines, and Mr. Kirk is a prominent commercial photographer of Indianapolis.

So, on the following pages, the Mirage proudly presents DePauw's five most beautiful women of the year . . .

DEPAUW DANCES

Two o'clock hours! Couldn't be DePauw! The four big university dances had always been surrounded by glamour; formals, tails, name bands, atmosphere for nights to be remembered; but somehow dates found themselves suddenly awakened from their dream world when 12:15 rolled around. Not so this year—four times the DePauw co-ed and her date said their good-nights at two, not twelve.

Against a background of snowflakes, the Juniors welcomed in this new tradition with their winter prom, "The Snow Ball".

After Christmas the second two o'clock night was spent at the KTK dance. After much talk of Stan Kenton the DePauwites settled for Glen Gray and his band and enjoyed it.

Rack 'em up, stack 'em up—anyhow, they see the queen!

Every man's for himself in the band while maestra Gray takes a look at his public.

Junior Prom—Queen, Marilyn Baker; Attendants, Jean Soltow and Donna Lou Wilson.

Golddigger's Ball—Queen, Joyce Campau; Attendants, Lou White, Judy Jackson, Barb Underwood; Crownbearer, Jackie Glover.

Kappa Tau Kappa—Queen, Fran Swenson; Attendants, Jean Clark, Margie Lee, Sonny Thiessen, Barb Vyse.

Kappa Pi Costume Ball—Queen, Boo Borgmeier; King, Art Zwierlein.

TWELVE OR TWO

Even moisture doesn't dampen a good date.

On Valentine's day the girls took over and sponsored their annual Golddiggers Ball. Old customs were revived, the fellows blossomed out in carrot corsages and found gold fish in their water at dinner.

A successful year of two o'clock hours ended in May with the Senior prom highlighting the year's dance calendar.

Nor did the social life lag between these gala occasions. The weekends were filled to overflowing with scheduled dances, adding up to the all time high of fifty-two.

Formal and informal, with corsages and queens . . .

IT'S A GALA OCCASION

Varying themes, elaborately carried out, showed the efforts of many hands and the loss of many hours of sleep spent painting and sawing in the bumroom.

At one house the dancers were "Heaven Sent," but found themselves at the opposite extreme when they descended to the bumroom. A tropical beach scene with sarang clad women and beach combing men; a circus tent background for a carnival theme. Seasonal themes were found in "Glistening," featuring silvered pine and Christmas tree lights; "Up In Central Park" portrayed the coming spring.

Ingenuity ran high as did the gayety at these dances which made this year a real return to post war DePauw life.

DePauw dances through its busiest social year.

DATES DON'T

Carnival, costumes and confetti.

"Gams" for glamor, not exercise . . . The Delts won.

You'll win at the Street Fair—maybe!

ALL GROW ON TREES!

Pleasantry at intermission.

Dinner dates — exchange style.

Double dotes welcome at the Double.

DEPAUW

The golden girls of Old Gold Day.

Strictly informal—come as you are.

IN TWO — TWO TIME

Judging from a view of the campus, DePauw students travel in twos. From September to June you'll see them anywhere—hand in hand—playing bridge in the Barn, having a quick cigarette between classes, or crowding the Voncastle on Sunday night. All work and no play proves to be dull, so donning jeans or formals, DePauw goes out to play.

Though her reign was brief, "Queen for a day" Pris Griswold got much pomp and circumstance—from coronation to consort.

Whether it's a bread line, a soup handout, or a chow line, the grub must be good, judging from the smiles!

THE DEPAUW YEAR

RUSHING AROUND

RUSH A LA CARTE

MALE CALL

THERE ARE SMILES . . .

Rush—the magic word that is on the tongue-tip of all freshmen as soon as they have their suitcases unpacked. Rush to the freshmen means not only the choosing of those with whom they will live while they are in college, but also the fraternity which they will be proud to claim for the rest of their lives. The rushees look to the sororities and fraternities to find the one to which they will add their best and the one which they feel will help them the most. Rush to the sorority and fraternity means meeting new DePauwites and putting a best foot forward in gracious entertaining, following the traditional friendliness of DePauw. Rush itself is a whirlwind week—exciting days of regulated calling, and parties, both formal and informal. So, after a week of hectic fun, confusion, and desperate attempts to remember names, the climax comes. Ribbons and pledge buttons appear and another year of rush has gone by suddenly.

Top Row: J. Yelton, B. Bogan, S. Lawver, M. Richey, M. Roberts, P. Stutz, B. Bell, J. Briner, P. Sandy.
Bottom Row: B. Raedel, N. Wilder, E. Aiken, B. Walker, President; B. Sibbitt Montgomery, Secretary-Treasurer; J. Frodin, M. Lee, J. Harders.

Panhellenic council is the group on the DePauw campus which governs the various activities of our nine Greek letter sororities. Each sorority is represented on the council by one senior and one junior representative. Senior members may be easily distinguished by the navy blue blazers they wear.

The busiest part of the year for Pan-Hel is sorority rush week in September, but the important business of setting rules for pledging, initiation, and other sorority activities continues through the year. One of the council's recent actions was to change the pledge quota to twenty freshmen and an unlimited number of upperclass women.

This year, with the return of a more normal number of men to DePauw, close cooperation between Panhellenic Council and Kappa Tau Kappa, men's inter-fraternity council, has again been resumed.

Panhellenic Council, held its annual dance in April, ond, as in previous years, sold memo books to swell the funds for the Student Union Building.

KAPPA TAU KAPPA

Top Row: B. Griesser, A. Hughes, F. Norris, J. Mast, J. Claycombe, D. Bedell, B. Adair, W. Goadwin, G. McKinney, P. Peck.
Bottom Row: J. McClure, G. Fibbe, J. Ross, J. Grace, J. Taylor, Treasurer; P. Barber, Vice-President; R. Miller, President; B. Smith, Secretary; J. Logue, J. Ward, J. Olcott, B. Gates.

Kappa Tau Kappo, the inter-fraternity council, did an outstanding job during both spring and fall rush. Due to the enrollment of fewer men in the post few years, the activities of Kappa Tau have been almost nil, but with the larger number of men students this yeor, their job was almost tripled. Over 300 men were rushed by the 13 representative fraternities. There was no more rushing done in Asbury hall, as the lights came on again in the fraternity houses after three years of use as University dormitories. A policy of Kappa Tau Kappa this year was to gather suggestions and opinions from all men students on campus concerning campus problems. In turn, these were presented to the Student Governing Board.

The honor of crowning the Old Gold Day oueen was bestowed upon Marlin Miller, Kappa Tau's president. Highlighting Kappa Tau's social calendar was their annual winter formal in January, feoturing Glen Gray.

ALPHA CHI OMEGA

As fall leaves again turned to shades of gold and red and brown, the girls of Alpha Chapter of Alpha Chi Omega returned to DePauw to begin a new year, which promised to be one of the "best ever." This year once more the Alpha Chis emphasized scholarship, activities, and fraternity in order to fulfill their place in campus life.

One of the largest groups of organized women on campus, Alpha Chi found it necessary to annex number 10 Olive Street to house an overflow of some twenty girls. The girls, despite this separation, worked closely together as one group in all things. They developed an excellent serenade group, held a number of exchange dinners, gave their annual formal dance for the pledges, and co-operated in all campus-wide activities.

Thus it was through these that the Alpha Chi girls strove to make this year one to remember and to maintain the high ideals of university and sorority life.

ALPHA GAMMA DELTA

Girls with yellow hats are gathered on third floor, the blue hats are holding a meeting on second, and the jaunty red caps are in the bum room. Is this a scene of ancient revolt? No, only an exaggerated case of the friendly class competition carried on in the Alpha Gam house this year. The juniors started by giving a Halloween costume party with witches and ghosts. Then all competition was forgotten to make the pledge dance, Holiday Chalet, an unforgettable success. In the spring it became the sophomores' turn to give the annual waiter's banquet and to serve the seniors breakfast in bed. The juniors again had their turn with swing-out, and everyone participated in the traditional cap and gown hunt. The Alpha Gams entertained, too, with faculty desserts, exchange dinners, and open-house parties. When second semester finals were over, the Alpha Gams went to McCormick's Creek for a final fling in a successful year.

ALPHA OMICRON PI

Amid the cry of "Where's my trunk?" and "Golly, what a smooth tan," the AOPi's prepared to settle down to another year filled with a mixture of gay dances, exchange dinners, bridge games, and, of course, books.

Rush was hardly over when Thanksgiving swung around and we were off for four days at home. Basketball season came next with the girls working for team cooperation and spirit, and groaning over sore muscles and aching backs. Christmas with the annual house party and the exchange of gifts was the highlight of the winter semester.

After finals and four happy days sans worry, spring came around the corner and well equipped with rubber boots and raincoats, the AOPi's cheerfully tramped to class through Greencastle's monsoons. Initiation, spring formal, waiter's banquet, and Swing-out added merriment to spring, and as the grass grew greener and the leaves leaped to life, AOPi thoughts turned back to the past semester and another wonderful year at DePauw.

ALPHA PHI

The Alpha Phi's spiral stairway has witnessed, this year, many exciting events; the conversion of the campus to postwar life with the return of the male contingent, and later hours for the co-eds—memorable changes in DePauw life.

The Phi's social calendar was crowded, first with open houses and fraternity exchange dinners, and later with the house Winter Formal. Sing practices, more frequent now because of more active serenade groups, knitting, bridge, and, of course, the traditional guzz sessions remained a part of Phi life.

With the first breath of spring the Phi front porch became the center of house activity and attention was centered about the seniors. The cap and gown struggle, senior chapel and a banquet in honor of the graduating class brought the year to an end. Then amidst packing and summer planning the Phi's closed the big white house to await the coming fall and the new memories it would bring.

DELTA DELTA DELTA

Returning in September to the old English house, which had undergone a complete face-lifting process during the summer, the Tri Delts, numbering fifty-two, began a busy year with rush and all of its work and play.

With the rainless fall came the temptations to take long walks and to put off studying, but as the days shortened, the old habit of hitting the books became as natural as getting ready for the Saturday night date.

In November the Tri Delts gave "Triangle Capers," a dance in honor of their pledges, and also began the first of a series of exchange dinners. With spring came the traditional Swingout, Waiter's banquet, and a formal to brighten the week-end of Spring Rush.

The Senior chapel and banquet, the traditional cap and gown hunt, and the Senior prom were a few of the activities filling the remaining weeks: thus with semester exams the Tri Delt girls ended another successful year.

DELTA ZETA

After a wonderful summer the DZ's returned to their newly painted colonial house, looking forward to a happy but busy year at normal, postwar DePauw.

Long hours of study were relieved by our social life filled with picnics, serenades, a hilarious Halloween "come-as-you-are" party, exchange dinner with sororities and fraternities, campus dances, and, of course, the Christmas party. The pledge dance was based on a Victorian Christmas theme. Many other activities made the months pass quickly until exam time approached once again.

Throughout the year the DZ's continued with traditional Wednesday night vespers, standards programs, and faculty dinners. Visits from recent graduates and members of nearby Delta Zeta chapters were a welcome addition to after-hour spreads and song fests.

Graduation time approached with the usual cap and gown tussle between juniors and seniors. The sorrow of losing the seniors was felt at commencement time, but everyone held the memory of another happy year in Delta Zeta.

KAPPA ALPHA THETA

Squeezed into the farthest corner of every available broom closet, the "annex-less" Thetas, 52 strong, straggled in from 52 respective vacations to find their colonial house proud possessor of snowy re-painted pillars, a sunnier south wing because of the toppling of two front yard elms in a summer thunderstorm, and a variable number of new cocker spaniel mascots. The subsequent blue-skyed autumn, that made raincoats unbelievably useless objects and prolonged the picnicing cotton dress days, slipped into a winter of song-filled nights on the serenade porch with accompanying frozen toes, and sub-zero sprints down College avenue at eight a.m.

Then came spring . . . a spring of sophomore hey-days when Swing Out practices and midnight robe hunting momentarily eclipsed the next day's psych mid-term . . . and finally summer, bringing graduation and the last days of the class of '47 for whom the busy doings of the year became the last page in their scrapbook of Theta memories.

KAPPA KAPPA GAMMA

A revived spirit welcomed Kappas back to DePauw this fall. The turmoil of the last five years had ended. Discharge buttons winked gaily from the lapels of DePauw men found congregating on the Kappa porch. The reopening of the fraternity houses saw the return of the traditional exchange dinners. An innovation in Kappa social life came when the Delts challenged the Kappas to a baseball game.

In November, the winter formal, "Kappa Karousel", was given for the twenty-three new pledges. The carnival spirit pervaded with a merry-go-round and a calliope adding to the gaiety.

The Christmas season was highlighted by faculty teas, the trimming of the tree and a party for the pledges. Following tradition, the Kappas went caroling the night before vacation began.

The return of "King Sol" again placed the accent on picnics, lazy outdoor bridge games, and the annual spring dance. 'Twas a busy and happy year for the wearers of the golden key.

PI BETA PHI

"I walked by the Pi Beta Phi house, one bright and sunny doy. I saw a cute little Pi Phi a-going on her way. I stopped to tolk to her a-while she said 'How do you do!' and showed me her brand new house, like all those Pi Phi's do!" Yes, that drab and dreary spot on the corner of Locust and Seminary has been transfigured by the magic touch of the girls of the Golden Arrow. The Pi Phi's got off to an early start in their new house with teas, exchange dinners, record dances, and their fall and spring formals. The girls agoin carried out their cheerie custom of singing Christmas carols and placing wreaths at the doors of dorms and houses before the holidays. The girls of Pi Phi have had a wonderful year, not only because of the memorable times they've had; but also because they have settled down in the first home that they can call their own.

MASON HALL

DePauw's "grand hotel," luxurious Mason Hall, housed 116 upperclass women this year instead of the usual quota of freshman girls. But the change didn't put any damper on the good times carried on in the pastel-walled rooms, even though one might expect "age" to be more dignified. Mason Hall "society" began the social whirl of the year with a tea honoring new housemother Mrs. Frederick Edwards, and from the time of this debut, both formality and informality were a part of dorm life. In the fall semester an informal dance entitled "Candy Land" and informal open houses were on the calendar. In addition, Mason's engagement book was filled with exchange dinners, impromptu spreads, and a jeans party honoring the 52 girls who graduated at the end of the semester. In the spring everyone dressed up for the spring formal. Mason girls hit the books, had bull sessions with cheese-and-cracker accompaniment, and enjoyed a full and pleasant dorm life.

LUCY ROWLAND

Sophomore, junior and senior women called Lucy Rowland "home" for the 1946-47 school year. Dorm activities as well as a crowded social calendar kept Lucy's 113 residents busy for both semesters.

Finally freed from freshman rules, the girls discovered that fun and study were both necessary to college life; so, to bolster the grade average, regular study table was held.

On the social side, exchange dinners highlighted the weeks, while "open houses" for the fraternities filled several Friday nights. Sweaters, skirts, and junk jewelry changed hands as a result of the treasury-benefit auction. Lucy girls climaxed their social activities with a formal dance in December. Carrying out an Oriental theme, the bum-room was transformed into an Eastern garden.

As campus life returned to a pre-war normal, the old and new girls in Lucy discovered that minor socials after hours in the bum-room, the big parties, and the studies all combined to form a memorable school year.

ALPHA TAU OMEGA

Army, Navy and Marine lingo which resounded through the ATO house during the first weeks of the winter semester soon became outmoded under the influence of fraternity life. Chow changed to food, deck to floor, "?*-≠' to rhine, and squeegee to—squeegee. Outside the scope of terminology, primary interests no longer centered on mail call, liberty and women but upon classes, activities and—women.

Pre-war brothers combined with later initiates and pledges to form the largest group of ATO's ever present on the DePauw campus, retaking their stone fortress from the Amazon regime which reigned during the war.

Resuming DePauw traditions, ATO freshmen staggered to class under the significant weight of the green pot; steak fries were held (with blankets); intramurals regained their pre-war importance; serenades became a usual rather than unusual occurrence on weekends; and the all important fraternity dances again took their place on the social calendar.

BETA THETA PI

In September, Delta of Beta Theta Pi began its one hundred and second year of continuous existence on this campus. In the first peacetime year the fraternity was sixty-eight strong due to the return of many men active before 1943 and the pledging of twenty-eight men during fall rush. One of the few "annex-less" houses on campus, the Beta's filled every available space in their newly decorated house.

After three years absence, Mrs. "Nanny" Brooks, housemother, and Novella, the cook, added to the competent management of the house.

The Formal in November and the Spring Informal highlighted the social season. The Miami Triad Dance, a national tradition of Sigma Chi, Phi Delt and Beta was held second semester. In April, Beta Centennial, postponed in 1945, brought a grand climax. Participation in intramural and varsity sports and emphasis on scholastic achievement figured on this year's agenda. With a successful year of reconversion Delta looks forward to further progress in the future.

DELTA KAPPA EPSILON

Celebrating their twentieth year in the grey stone mansion "way out" on Anderson street, the "loyal band of brothers" are once more back on campus after the long war years, carrying on the traditions of Delta Kappa Epsilon. This chapter was established in 1866, twenty-two years after the founding of the mother chapter at Yale.

Since the spring of 1946 the chapter has grown from a small group of eight men to its present strength of fifty-five. Strongly individualistic, the Dekes are working hard to mould a fraternity chapter that will be an asset to DePauw University.

Though the Dekes are the farthest off campus of any house, they are still an integral part of campus and may be seen in many fields of DePauw activity, intramurals, governing bodies, and social affairs.

This then is the beginning of o new epoch in the history of Delta Kappa Epsilon—and the Old Gold.

DELTA TAU DELTA

Everything got off to a good start last fall when the house was officially re-opened and, after three years as a University residence hall, became once more the Delta "Shelter." (A bit of paint and polish had been added during the summer to give it that familiar old "Country Club" look.) To further the occasion, the fraternity welcomed Mrs. Nira Raedel as its new housemother.

The annual Old Gold Day in November became doubly importont as the onniversary celebration of Delta Tau Delto's seventy-fifth year on the campus of DePauw, and was one of the biggest events on the fraternity's calendor. The following months were filled with many other social highlights—the winter formal . . . the traditional yuletide Christmas porty . . . State Day in Indionopolis . . . the spring dance with the usual last minute jitters wondering if the weather would cooperate for dancing in the sunken garden. Intermingled with all this were many exchange dinners . . . an occasional Saturday evening open house . . . and of course now and then time out for thot old fomiliar octivity known as studying. Then quite suddenly another year was gone, the midnight oil was all used up, and the Delta "Shelter" was empty, woiting for another big DePauw Year.

DELTA UPSILON

1947 marks the end of the sixtieth year of the DePauw chapter of Delta Upsilon. Last fall, thirty DU's returned to the "Temple" on East Seminary street, but by the end of the first week they numbered fifty-six. With rush over, the brotherhood settled down to the serious work of social events and activities, with an occasional moment given to studies.

The two big events of the fall were the annual freshman Vaudeville show, presented this year for the first time before a mixed audience, which was soon followed by a successful fall formal.

Delta U stood unusually high in activities this year, placing men on all the major varsity athletic squads, and in other extra-curricular roles on campus. In scholarship, the goal was to maintain last spring's record of first among the DePauw fraternities.

DU watched with regret the graduation of sixteen seniors, including four ex-presidents. They will be missed at the "Temple", but the freshman class will replace them, and Delta Upsilon, now a sexagenarian, will begin its second sixty years stronger than ever.

LAMBDA CHI ALPHA

It's wonderful to be back—joe serenades, cut-throat ping pong, boresses in the dorm, and instilling class spirit in the pledges.

No better example of the Lambda Chi fellowship can be cited than the turnout for the Victory reunion last fall. Over 150 people, brothers and friends of Xi Zeta, came to the chapter house to swap experiences and introduce their wives or sweethearts, and even five tiny tots to the assemblage of brothers. There hasn't been one caustic comment about "fraternity widows" from the wives as their husbands come out in full force to work for the chapter.

Through ingenuity, hard work, and cooperation, Lambda Chi produced the prize winning decorations for Old Gold day for the third time in four years.

It will be a long time before the "Lost-Weekend" winter formal with its too realistic decorations will be forgotten.

The first post-war year ot DePauw went all too fast—It's wonderful to be back.

PHI DELTA THETA

The first to give up its house early in 1943, Indiana Zeta of Phi Delta Theta was one of the last to regain it. During the war years, powder puffs and feminine chatter dominated the premises. But, with football in the front yard, basketball on the tennis court, and general masculine bedlam at all hours inside the house, no one could deny that the boys were back in full force. Fall picnics, parties, and informal dances marked the first semester of the '46-'47 school year. On December fourteenth, couples stepped through the lens, under the bellows, and into the "Photo Frolic", Phi Delta Theta's Winter formal.

Each weekend was marked by the campus appearance of the "Choral Society of Lower Anderson Street" with its array of novelty tunes. The Masquerade Ball and the numerous warm-weather activities attendant on a DePauw spring rounded out the first post-war year of Phi Delta Theta.

PHI GAMMA DELTA

After four wars and ninety years on the DePauw campus, Lambda of Phi Gamma Delta finds itself facing the atomic age with full strength. Lambda remembers the sixteen years Mrs. John Kelch spent as housemother before her death in 1944. Mrs. Ruth Sugg Mintzer has this year served happily in that capacity. An Alpha Phi at DePauw in other years, Mrs. Mintzer has three-score Fiji's to escort her to class while she is garnering a few hours needed for her A.B.

Now faced with a hodge-podge of rice-paper and adobe lean-to's, instead of the chlorophyl-green Dells of former years, the Fiji's have had to shape-up athletically in the middle of College Street. Evidently this make-shift "field" proved useful, for the year may be remembered by the 7-0 pledge football victory over an active team which included six Tiger first-stringers. Another memorable occasion was the annual initiation Pig Dinner.

PHI KAPPA PSI

Phi Kappa Psi was founded at Jefferson college in 1852. Fourteen years later the Indiana Alpha chapter was established at DePauw. Since that time Phi Psi has been constantly growing and this successful year has resulted from the work of the men throughout other years who have worn the black-and-gold shield.

This year Phi Kappa Psi has had men in every field of campus life. The men of the red and green have been active in the university and intra-mural athletics. Phi Psi has been represented in all of the major sports.

A return to normal social life has been shown in the traditional faculty-businessmen's smoker, the Christmas dance, and the party for underprivileged children.

In its eighty-two years on the campus, the chapter has developed through various stages and has truly become an organization working in the interests of DePauw and Phi Kappa Psi.

SIGMA CHI

On September 17th the doors of the Sig house opened for men for the first time in three years. During the war it had been under contract to the University as a women's hall of residence.

A dazen men of the pre-war chapter and twenty V-12 Sigs returned to meet the fifteen brothers remaining from last spring; it was with this group that Xi entered the '46-'47 school year.

The defense of the Sigma Chi bell is traditionally the duty of the freshmen Sigs; this year a pledge class of 21, acquired during rush, upheld the custom.

The Sig calendar for December included a Christmas party for Greencastle's underprivileged children and a formal dance. The Sig formal was highlighted by the election of the Sigma Chi Sweetheart of the year.

Spring again found the front porch of the Sig house the meeting place of the brothers, and in June the doors closed on another successful year at DePauw.

SIGMA NU

With the beginning of the September term the Sigma Nu's once again moved into their pillared house on the corner of Seminary and College. The atmosphere became masculine for the first time since the Pi Phi girls took over for the war duration. Quickly the old familiar sights came back—even Thibedeaux VII, another of their traditional St. Bernard mascots.

One of the highlights of their year was the visit of Dr. Paul Spencer, who celebrated his fiftieth anniversary as a Sigma Nu at DePauw by presenting his diamond-studded pin to the Chapter to be worn by each year's Commander. The Sigma Nu's devoted Old Gold Day to the commemoration of their members of Beta Beta chapter, Charles Lassman and Eugene Jordan, who lost their lives in the last war.

As December rolled around, the members once again trekked out into the country to fell their Christmas tree without the use of axe or saw. Yes, again this year Sigma Nu carried out its traditions to the utmost.

MEN'S HALL ASSOCIATION

Men's Hall Association, which is beginning its twenty-sixth year on campus, is the perfect solution for those who want the close comradeship of an organizotion and yet the mointenance of their freedom as an independent. Organized in 1920 by a small group of independent men, the Association has grown in strength and tradition through the years.

This year the Holl men were forced to abandon their pre-war home, Flossie, and retreat to Longden, the only remaining men's residence hall on campus, becouse of the hordes of co-eds who moved in during the war to replace the void in students. However, the Association men have become well-acclimated to their new surroundings.

All of the old MHA traditions hove been revived: the senior Swan Songs, in which graduating seniors retell their experiences at DePauw; the faculty smokers; the annuol visit by the cabinet members to the grave of Edword Rector; the ideals—liberty, equality, fraternity—these keep the men in the bonds of the Associotion.

HOUSE OFFICERS

NORMAN BOWERS	President
MARVIN GLEN	Vice-President
EDMUND STEINLE	Secretary

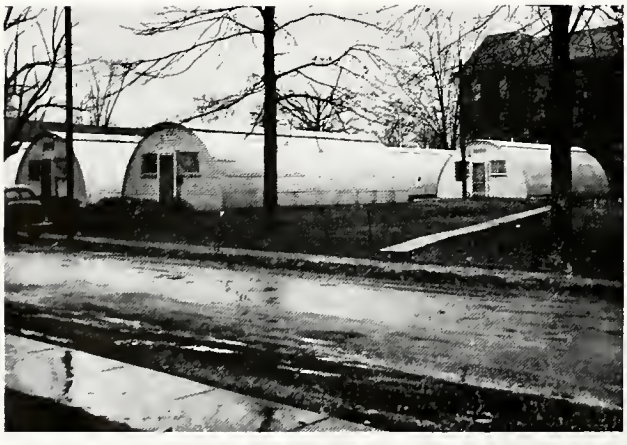
INDEPENDENT MEN

As well as being the headquarters of the Men's Hall Association, Longden Hall houses a number of the independent men on campus. This situation accounts for the healthy intramural rivalry which exists between the independents and the Hall men.

This year Longden Hall was the only university residence hall for men on the campus since Florence Hall, originally for men, was still occupied by Freshman women. In normal times Longden, located a few blocks south of the campus, accommodates 115 students, but with housing conditions as abnormal as they were in 1946-47, the ivy-covered three-story brick building was crowded. The overflow of masculinity was particularly evident during fraternity rush when approximately one hundred men were "attic dwellers," housed in the make-shift fourth floor dormitory until they pledged fraternities.

Others of the many independent veterans at DePauw lived in rooms in town, or, in many cases, with their wives and families in university housing units.



Typical of the housing facilities for married veterans are the quonset huts.

My way would be to choose an outfit that does more than put their feet on my desk and pat me on the back.
